

state of flux: summer 2008
open submission

Pepperton Gallery is inviting artists to an open submission for the summer exhibition state of flux: summer 2008.

This exhibition is an opportunity to look at and portray some of the changes, progress and movements that have taken place within our lives either at a personal/intimate level or as a collective that has impacted society on a social, political or economic level. On a day to day basis we are surrounded by changes at every moment of our lives...

Visual artists and craftsmen working in all mediums are invited to submit images of their works.

Please send good quality photographs or jpegs with titles, medium, and dimension to Pepperton Gallery, 25 Selhurst Road, London SE25, 5PP or email: pepperton1@yahoo.co.uk by Wednesday 21st May. After which artists will be asked to deliver their works to the gallery by Wednesday 28th May, between 12 noon – 5PM. A final selection will thereafter be made by a panel of judges.

state of flux: summer 2008 will open on 7th June and continue until 17th July 2008.

Maximum size for 2D works, 2m X 2m. Please see the gallery's Artist Terms and Conditions.

With thanks
